

Partner Contacts and Resources

The organizations listed below offer information on topics addressed at this Symposium, including indoor air quality (IAQ), asthma management, facility management, and children's health.

American Association of School Administrators (AASA)

Provides information and reports on how school building conditions affect student performance.

Web: www.aasa.org

Tel: (703) 528-0700

American Federation of Teachers (AFT)

Serves as an advocate and partner for all teachers in elementary, secondary, and higher education to improve the quality of the profession.

Web: www.aft.org

Tel: (202) 879-4400

American Lung Association (ALA)

Provides information on the Open Airways for Schools Program and other activities to improve asthma management in schools.

Web: www.lungusa.org

Tel: (800) 586-4872

Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO)

Provides information on school activities involving business officials and offers a publication on managing school facilities.

Web: www.asbointl.org

Tel: (866) 682-2729

The Council of Educational Facility Planners International (CEFPI)

Provides publications and articles on managing school facilities and creating healthy school environments.

Web: www.cefpi.org

Tel: (480) 391-0840

Healthy School Network, Inc. (HSN)

Assures every child and school employee an environmentally safe and healthy school through work on research, information sharing, advocacy, and coalition-building.

Web: www.healthyschools.org

Tel: (518) 462-0632

National Association of School Nurses (NASN)

Provides information on efforts to advocate the importance of the school nurse in managing children's asthma.

Web: www.nasn.org

Tel: (866) 627-6767

National Education Association-Health Information Network (NEA-HIN)

Provides information for educators and school staff on current concerns with environmental health in schools.

Web: www.neahealthinfo.org

Tel: (202) 822-7570

National Environmental Health Association (NEHA)

Provides information on radon and IAQ and offers training courses on IAQ management.

Web: www.neha.org

Tel: (202) 756-9090